

4th Southeast Asian Animal Enrichment & Training Workshop February 10 - 14, 2014

Hosted by: Ocean Adventure and Wildlife In Need

In partnership with: Active Environments and The Shape of Enrichment

Instructors: Gail Laule & Valerie J. Hare

Chair of Organising Committee: Bianca Espinos

Back by popular demand! Ocean Adventure and Wildlife In Need are pleased to once again host the Southeast Asian Animal Enrichment & Training Workshop. This unique five-day workshop will present an array of topics relating to behavioral management of captive animals with particular emphasis on environmental enrichment, positive reinforcement training and the problem-solving process. The workshop is open to zookeepers, aquarists, managers, supervisors, curators and veterinarians from the Southeast Asian and Australasian region.

The workshop will be conducted in English and the format includes discussions, small group projects, demonstrations, and hands-on enrichment and training opportunities with a diverse animal collection at Ocean Adventure and the Wildlife in Need Rescue Center. Skills taught are directly related to enhancing the overall care and management of captive animals and improving their welfare. The workshop format is designed to maximize the value for each participant and as much as possible to address specific situations, needs, problems, and objectives.

Be prepared to interact, share, and participate to make the experience as useful and relevant to you as possible! Deadline of registration is January 25, 2012. Limited slots only.

Registration fee TBD and includes the following:

- All workshop materials
- All lunch, dinners and breaks during the workshop
- Icebreaker and closing banquet
- Commemorative canvas bag and t-shirt
- A certificate of accomplishment
- A one-year digital subscription to The Shape of Enrichment
